"Let be," he said, sternly. "I have a lesson to tache this omadhour. Fatth, he's growin' foo large to live in the same town wid the likes o' me."
And the unequal match was arranged. In half an hour's time the two were seated in Sam's back room, with all the chips in the house divided in two equal parts, and the game was begun with the clear understanding that the winner of all the chips could claim from the other all that he owned on earth, down to his undershirt.

As there was nothing whatever to attact the attention of anybody in Brownsville to any other point, the room was crowded with lookers-on, and all those who could not gain entrance stood outside and discussed the probabilities.

A THOUSAND MILES OF COMFORT

There's not a piece of track in all America that is better built, safer, or easier to ride over than the Burlington Route from Denver to Chicago.

A trip over it is the most notable experience in the transcontinental journey. For more than a thousand miles you are transported at flying speed. Noise and dust are noticeably absent. If it were not for the landscape that rushes past at 60 miles an hour you would hardly believe you were moving.
